Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

QCH is a multi-service, community-based organization whose mission is to provide individuals and families with the tools to enrich their lives and build healthy, inclusive communities. QCH programs are in some of New York City's most racially and ethnically diverse communities, with high concentrations of low-income, working poor and new immigrant or first generation Americans, speaking more than 100 different languages. QCH serves residents of all ages, races and ethnicities while supporting the viability of neighborhoods and Queens as a whole. Through a broad network of 42 programs operating out of 25 program sites, we help Queens residents to thrive in school and make healthy life choices, to succeed in educating themselves and become engaged neighbors, to stabilize their housing situation, and to make the most of their senior years.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Highlights of our accomplishments in FY 2015 include:

Youth Services:

- Our Summer Youth Employment Program remains one of the strongest in the city, with more than 800 youth participating each summer.
- We took over operation of the Young Adult Borough Center (YABC) at the High School for Business and Arts in Corona. This is our second YABC and our fourth Learning to Work program, which are designed to provide students on an alternative pathway to high school graduation the support needed to earn a diploma while gaining valuable employment experience through paid internships.
- Our CASP program for young adults on an alternate pathway to higher education continued, meanwhile, to serve youth pursuing an Associate's Degree from one of the two CUNY schools in Queens. Most CASP participants draw from our DOE-funded transfer high schools or our Young Adult Borough Centers. To date, 22 CASP participants have graduated from one of our CUNY schools while others have transferred to four year colleges to complete their degree. Many more are continuing to progress towards their degree. In total, the program served more than 300 youth last year alone. We continue to sustain a first year retention rate close to 70% -- far exceeding that of CUNY overall retention numbers.

Community Services:

•QCH's ESOL program provides 2,500 class slots annually for English instruction (on three levels), consistently performing with outcomes among the best in the city. Closely linked to the ESOL programming is our legal services department which provides students with advising around immigration issues.

•Through partnerships with libraries, local schools, and other community-based organizations, our housing workers reached more than 1,700 Queens' residents last year through workshops, presentations and community events and, more than 3,000 community members received direct housing and tenant services.

Services for Older Adults:

•QCH's older adult services addressed the needs of more than 12,000 seniors and 500 caregivers last year through five senior centers, social adult day services, home-delivered meals, case management and other program offerings.

•Our Queens Center for Gay Seniors expanded programming to 5 days a week and now provides hot catered lunches on those days as well as an array of classes, exercise

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

The Form 990 was sent to the full board of directors via e mail prior to being filed with the IRS. All directors were afforded the opportunity to ask questions and offer edits. The decision of whether to make edits was made by the staff person in charge of finances within the organization in conjunction with our tax preparer.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

The organization has a "board approved" conflicts of interest policy. Each board member must fill out an annual declaration stating they had no conflicts or identifying the nature of their interested party transactions.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

Each year, the executive committee reviews comparable salaries based on a recognized study and reviews the performance of the executive director to determine if the existing salary falls within these ranges. After a deliberation of this matter, a proposed salary and benefit package is voted on. The minutes of the board of directors reflect the nature of this process.
